They may have been absent, and I wouldn't even notice!	These team members helped out a little when given a specific task, but didn't show any initiative when it came to completing extra work.	I didn't need to give any help to these team members, and they seemed to do just as much work as me.	I was asking these team members for help, or asking if there was anything else I could do. Without them, we would fail!
